INVADERS MAY DESTROY CAPITAL OF KASHMIR

KASHMIR'S accession to the Dominion of India was based on "fraud and violence," and will not be recognised by the Pakistan Government, said an official communique issued in Lahore today, states Reuter. The Pakistan Government declared that the dispatch of Indian troops to Kashmir had intensified and inflamed the feelings of tribesmen. Srinagar, capital of Kashmir, was in "imminent danger" of capture by the invaders last night, according to a spokesman of the Indian Ministry of External Affairs in New Delhi, He said they might destroy the capital and massacre many people.

Indian Air Force Tempests and Spitfires were represed into be in action on the front. Civil airlliers were pressed into service during the day to fly troops into Kashmir from India, and to evacuate women and the Wholesale Clothing Manufacturers' Federation are to meet shortly to deal with the claims, which isclude:

CASTLE WARD PLEA FOR COUPON-FREE WOMEN'S CLOTHING

MR. A. H. KIMBERLIN, Conservative candidate for Castle Ward, again addressed open-air meetings

M.R. A. H. KIMBERLIN.

Conservative candidate for Castle Ward, again addressed open-air meetings last night.

In Infirmary square, he answered questions on schools and houses for old people, and that it was untrue that the Conservatives had had a majority on the City Council.

Answering a question on clothing, he emphasised that the light clothing Working Party report, on which he had been engaged, vindicated his remarks that the release of some women's clothing from coupons could be effected.

This would act as a great incentive to women workers.

Mr. Kimberlin said his opponent's loudspeaker profor the Newton Ward at his meeting in Ingle-street School.

Coun. Spencer said to him
Hillerest was still a workhouse and a degrading blot upon society which must be swept away. The Public Assistance Committee was arranging to house old couples in delightful surroundings, so they might spend the evening of their lives together.
On the New Paris Estate, Coun. Spencer said they

"PEOPLE FORCED TO DISPLAY PROPAGANDA" —MR. C. A. NEWPORT cases where men and women appear to have been forced, against their wills, to display the propaganda of parties with which they have no sympathy.

SPEAKING at Meibourneroad Schools, Mr. C. A.
Newport, the Liberal candidate for Spinney Hill Ward, gave as the qualities of a good councillor (1) that he should think of himself not as bossing his fellows, but as bearing their burdens; (2) that his aims should be entirely unselfish; (3) that he should always be asking the right questions; (4) that he should have scrupulous regard for truth; and (5) that he should always take a long view.
"There is a very sinister aiways be asking the right questions: (4) that he should have scrupulous regard for truth; and (5) that he should always take a long view.
"There is a very sinister aspect of affairs which we have noticed during this election." They were much encouraged by the response to the Liberal number of people who are downright frightened of their Liberal sympathies being known.

"I have even known of all the should always take a long view."

SOLICITOR REBUKED IN LOUGHBORO' EGGS CASE

"KEEP QUIET and behave yourself!" a solicitor, Mr. H. R. S. Clifford. was told in Loughborough Magistrates' Court last evening by both the chairman, Capt. C. E. Huston, and the clerk Mr. E. A. Payne. This occurred during the conclusion of the case relating to a Loughborough cafe proprietor, Thomas A Cooper, of Churchilli-road, Mount-sorrel, who as previously reported in the Evening Mail, was sentenced to three months' imprisonment for purchasing 3.175 eggs in various lots without a Ministry permit.

Mr. John Rogers, defending Cooper, gave notice of appeal, On eight summonses for lilegally supplying eggs, John Gibson, of East Leake, was sent for trial at Nottingham Assizes.

Assizes.

Anthony Jarram (20), of Cauldwell - street, Loughborough, was fined £20 on one of 18 summonses for supplying, and elected through his solicitor, Mr. Clifford, to go for trial on the other summonses.

"MAKING SIGNS"

In the fifth hour of the hearing, some difficulty was experienced by the clerk in making Jarram, who stammered badly and said he could read but little—understand the committal charge.

"You are not such a fool as not to know what this means," the clerk had remarked, when the chairman uttered the first "Keep quiet" warning to Mr. Clifford.

The clerk repeated the warning, and also accused Mr. Clifford of making signs to Jarram not soing to put up.

"I am not soing to put up.

WESTCOTES LIBERAL WARNS OF

"CLASS HATRED"

DECLARING that, if the Conservative Party were returned to office, "the simmering class hatred which is so apparent at the moment would flare up," Mr. L. R. Davis, Liberal candidate for West-cotes Ward, Leicester, said at Narborough-road Schools that the Liberals were fighting because they believed themselves the only party able to bridge the gap between capitalists and workers.

"Mr. Franz in his election."

"Mr. Frears in his election address said he would be proud to follow in his father's footsteps." Mr. Davis declared. "Were he to do so, he wild have cause to be n ud. for his father was a Liozral Lord Mayor."

The complaints of the Conservatives against the Liberal Party's move in contesting Westcotes were meaningless, he said, as they were themselves putting up a candidate against the Mayor of Loughborough.
